

UC SAN DIEGO SUMMARY OF POSTING GUIDELINES Updated October 2023

Policy and Procedure Manual (PPM) 510-I Section IX - Policy on Speech, Advocacy and Distribution of Literature on University Grounds implements the University's systemwide Policy on Speech and Advocacy at UC San Diego. It describes the overall campus policy for distribution, posting, and exhibition of literature and is applicable to all UC San Diego Grounds and Facilities.

In addition to the campus policy, other rules and guidelines have been implemented to address posting in specific campus areas. The the UC San Diego Residential Life Community Standards describe specific posting rules for all Housing Dining Hospitality owned, operated, or leased residential areas. Each undergraduate college and/or residential area has implemented more specific rules for their physical spaces. Similarly, Graduate and Family Housing has implemented similar rules in its Handbook. Further, various campus departments, including University Centers, maintain area-specific posting policies.

Please review the links to learn more about specific posting policies in various UC San Diego Grounds and Facilities. Questions or concerns about the individual guidelines can be directed to the offices and persons listed within this document.
