Student Conduct Reviews at a Glance

A Student Conduct Review (Section G) is a formal review with one or more Respondents and the Community Standards Board or Review Officer, to resolve any alleged violations of the Standards of Conduct not resolved at an Administrative Resolution meeting.

The Board or Review Officer starts with the presumption that you are innocent, until the University Representative can demonstrate that a Preponderance of Evidence exists, or more likely than not, that you are responsible for one or more alleged violations.
